About the EIN Assistant

- You must complete this application in one session, as you will not be able to save and return at a later time.
- For security purposes, your session will expire after 15 minutes of inactivity, and you will need to start over.
- You will receive your EIN immediately upon verification. When will I be able to use my EIN?
- If you wish to receive your confirmation letter online, we strongly recommend that you install Adobe Reader before beginning the application if it is not already installed.

Restrictions

- Effective May 21, 2012, to ensure fair and equitable treatment for all taxpayers, the Internal Revenue Service will limit Employer Identification Number (EIN) issuance to one per responsible party per day. This limitation is applicable to all requests for EINs whether online or by phone, fax or mail. We apologize for any inconvenience this may cause.
- If a third party designee (TPD) is completing the online application on behalf of the taxpayer, the taxpayer must authorize the third party to apply for and receive the EIN on his or her behalf.
- The business location must be within the United States or U.S. territories.
- Foreign filers without an Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN) cannot use this assistant to obtain an EIN.
- If you were incorporated outside of the United States or the U.S. territories, you cannot apply for an EIN online. Please call us at 267-941-1099 (this is not a toll free number).

Confirm your selection of Estate as the type of structure applying for an EIN

What it is...

- An estate (or decedent estate) is a legal entity created as a result of a person's death.
- The estate consists of the real and/or personal property of the deceased person.
- The estate pays any debts owed by the decedent and distributes the balance of the estate's assets to the beneficiaries of the estate.
- An estate arises on a person's death whether the person died with or without a will.

If you need to change your type of structure, we recommend that you do so now, otherwise you will have to start over and re-enter your information.

Additional help may be found by reviewing all types of organizations and structures before making your selection.

i Certification for Third Party Designee (TPD)

If a third party designee (TPD) is completing the online application on behalf of the taxpayer, the taxpayer must authorize the third party to apply for and receive the EIN on his/her behalf, according to the process below:

1. The taxpayer must sign a completed Form SS-4 (Application for Employer Identification Number), including the TPD section, prior to the third party completing the online application, and a copy of the signed Form SS-4 must be retained in the third party's files.
2. The taxpayer must read and sign a statement that he/she understands that he/she is authorizing the third party to apply for and receive the EIN on his/her behalf, and answer questions about completion of the form. A copy of the signed statement must be retained in the third party's files.
3. The assigned EIN will be disclosed to the third party upon successful completion of the online application.
4. The taxpayer will receive a computer-generated notice from the IRS stating that the EIN was assigned.

Please read the following statement and check the appropriate choice.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I am an authorized TPD. The taxpayer has completed and signed a Form SS-4, including the TPD Section and has read and signed a statement authorizing me to apply for and receive an EIN on his/her behalf. I have retained copies of both documents in my files.

Additional Information about your EIN

When can you use your EIN?

This EIN is your permanent number and can be used immediately for most of your business needs, including:

- Opening a bank account
- Applying for business licenses
- Filing a tax return by mail

However, it will take up to two weeks before your EIN becomes part of the IRS's permanent records. You must wait until this occurs before you can:

- File an electronic return
- Make an electronic payment
- Pass an IRS Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) matching program

Next steps?

[Information is dependent on organization type]

Need to make a correction?

If you need to make changes to your organization's information, you must do so in writing and mail the information to the address provided at <https://www.irs.gov/businesses/business-name-change>

Additional Information about your EIN

When can you use your EIN?

This EIN is your permanent number and can be used immediately for most of your business needs, including:

- Opening a bank account
- Applying for business licenses
- Filing a tax return by mail

However, it will take up to two weeks before your EIN becomes part of the IRS's permanent records. You must wait until this occurs before you can:

- File an electronic return
- Make an electronic payment
- Pass an IRS Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) matching program

Next steps?

[Information is dependent on organization type]

Need to make a correction?

If you need to make changes to your organization's information, you must do so in writing and mail the information to the address provided at <https://www.irs.gov/businesses/business-name-change>
